

Competition Alley

Competition Alley is a center town vest pocket park that occupies the length of the last remaining street from the original town of Competition. It has a gazebo, bench seating and a shaded park area. Five interpretative e panels explain the history of Pittsylvania County's five courthouses. Competition Alley was developed by Chatham First.

